

Are you thinking of becoming an art therapist or would you like to continue your art therapy education?

A new offer is finally here!

Starting: Autumn 2018 in Switzerland

Anthroposophical art therapy painting course*

specialising in, amongst others, Hauschka and Collot d'Herbois

4 years, modular, part-time (on Mondays and 15 weekends a year)

The modules will also appeal to trained art therapists

Introductory events

Saturday 10th March / Saturday 16th June / Saturday 18th August 2018

Programme (German and English spoken)

- Learn about the course and the individual modules
- Learn about the specialised modules and furthering your education
- For beginners: exercises in art therapy with colour and shape (materials provided)
- For those interested in continuing their education: discussing your requirements and individual training

Teaching faculty / organisers of introductory events:

Rita Binder, Anna Dämpfle, Joost Groot, Maria Mlosch-Crettaz, Johanna Ryser, Barbara Steinmann, Oliva Stutz et al.

Location: 4144 Arlesheim, Switzerland

Duration: 9:00am – 12:30pm, 1:30 - 5:00pm

Cost: Fr. 60. - (Contribution to cover materials, snacks etc.)

Participants will receive a certificate of attendance (7h).

A list of reasonably priced accommodation is available on request.

Registration / further information: info@studiengang-kunsttherapie.ch

www.studiengang-kunsttherapie.ch

* In conjunction with a t k a, Anthroposophical academy of therapy and art (www.atka.ch), according to the guidelines of the European Academy and the Oda ARTECURA